Discover South Italy:
A Motorcycle Adventure Through History and Coastlines

Set out on an unforgettable journey that blends thrilling rides, breathtaking landscapes, and rich cultural experiences. This nine-day motorcycle tour takes you from the ancient heart of Rome to the sun-soaked coasts of southern Italy, through Sicily's golden countryside, and along the iconic Amalfi Coast. Ride winding coastal roads, explore UNESCO World Heritage sites, and indulge in authentic Italian cuisine, from Naples' legendary pizza to the fresh seafood of Tropea. Whether conquering the volcanic slopes of Mount Etna or marvelling at the frozen-in-time ruins of Pompeii, this tour offers an unparalleled blend of adventure and history. Each day promises stunning views, engaging stories, and the freedom of the open road—a true Italian escapade for motorcycle enthusiasts and culture seekers alike.

TOUR PROGRAM DAY BY DAY

Day 1: Arrival in Rome
Welcome to the Eternal City, where ancient history meets vibrant modern life. After settling into your accommodations, explore Rome's iconic landmarks, from the majestic Colosseum to the charming streets of Trastevere. End the day with a stunning sunset view from Gianicolo Hill, offering a panoramic perspective of the city.

Day 2: Rome to Naples and Overnight Ferry to Palermo
Embark on a scenic ride through the rolling hills of Lazio and Campania, passing vineyards and olive groves. Arrive in Naples, a city bursting with energy and culture, where you can wander the historic Spaccanapoli street and visit the UNESCO-listed Royal Palace. Savor authentic Neapolitan pizza before boarding an overnight ferry to Palermo, cruising under a starry sky.

Day 3: Palermo - Corleone - Palermo (or Free Day in Palermo)
Ride through Sicily's golden countryside to the historic town of Corleone, known for its fascinating Mafia history and cinematic ties. Alternatively, immerse yourself in Palermo's lively markets and stunning architecture. Highlights include the intricate mosaics of the Palatine Chapel and Corleone's Mafia and Anti-Mafia Museum for a unique dive into local history.

Day 4: Palermo - Cefalù - Mount Etna - Taormina
Follow Sicily's breathtaking northern coastline to the seaside town of Cefalù, framed by rugged cliffs and turquoise waters. Continue through rolling hills to Mount Etna, where you'll experience its otherworldly volcanic landscape. End the day in the picturesque town of Taormina, known for its dramatic views and ancient charm.

Day 5: Taormina - Tropea
Cross the shimmering Strait of Messina back to mainland Italy, enjoying spectacular sea views. Ride south along the rugged Calabrian coast to Tropea, a cliffside town renowned for its crystal-clear waters and the stunning Santa Maria dell'Isola Monastery perched above the sea.

Day 6: Tropea - Maratea
Ride along the Tyrrhenian coastline, passing through quaint villages, lush pine forests, and dramatic mountain landscapes. Arrive in Maratea, known as the “Pearl of the Tyrrhenian,” where you’ll find serene beaches and breathtaking views. Don’t miss the Cristo Redentore statue towering above the town.

Day 7: Maratea - Amalfi - Sorrento
Today we finally experience one of Italy’s most scenic rides along the Amalfi Coast, with its steep cliffs, winding roads, and colourful villages. Stop in Amalfi to admire its majestic Duomo and in Positano to enjoy its cascading houses. End the day in Sorrento, a charming town overlooking the Bay of Naples, surrounded by lemon groves.

Day 8: Sorrento - Pompeii - Rome
Ride through the fertile Campania countryside to Pompeii, an ancient city frozen in time by the eruption of Mount Vesuvius. Explore its well-preserved villas, streets, and the iconic Forum before continuing back to Rome. Along the way, take in the scenic backroads, including parts of the historic Appian Way.

Day 9: Departure from Rome
Conclude your journey in the Eternal City, reflecting on the incredible landscapes and cultural treasures of Italy. If time allows, enjoy a final cappuccino overlooking the Trevi Fountain or take a leisurely stroll through Piazza Navona before departing.

TRIP CANCELATION INSURANCE

Customers of Clutch Moto Tours have the opportunity to purchase trip cancellation insurance. Purchasing trip cancellation insurance allows customers to receive a refund for a tour when a customer must cancel a tour for reasons covered by this insurance. Clutch Moto Tours trip cancellation insurance does not cover expenses not paid to Clutch Moto Tours, such as airfare, additional hotel accommodations or sightseeing, even if such bookings are made for or recommended to the customer by Clutch Moto Tours.

This insurance can only be purchased at the time payment is made. Trip cancellation insurance cannot be purchased after tour payment is made. Tour passengers or traveling companions can be covered by the customer's trip cancellation insurance if designated at the time of purchase of the insurance.

Trip cancellation insurance costs 7.5% of the total listed price of the tour, including any supplements like motorcycle upgrades, single room requests, and passenger costs.

Clutch Moto Tours will refund the full tour price to a customer who has purchased Trip Cancellation Insurance if the cancelation is due to the following:
Sickness, accidental injury or death of the customer, the customer's traveling companion, or an immediate family member or business partner of the customer or traveling companion. The claim must be substantiated by a signed letter from a physician on their letterhead. The customer or traveling companion having their home made uninhabitable by a natural disaster. The claim must be substantiated by a letter from the insurance company.

War or terrorism in a country which is part of the tour which then leads the customer's government to issue a warning to not travel there during the period when the tour is to take place. Such recommendation must be made after the date of purchase of the Trip Cancellation Insurance.

The customer or traveling companion being required to serve on a jury or subpoenaed. The claim must be substantiated by a letter from the court.

The customer or traveling companion being directly involved in a traffic accident while en route to departure. The claim must be substantiated by a police report.

The customer or traveling companion is called to military duty during the period when the tour is to take place. The claim must be substantiated by letter from the military.

A strike, natural disasters or bad weather results in the cancellation of airline service and prevents the customer from arriving in time to participate in the tour.

The customer or traveling companion has their employment terminated through no fault of their own after purchasing the Trip Cancellation Insurance.

The customer must be employed for one year by the employer. The claim must be substantiated by a termination letter on company letterhead.

This insurance specifically excludes:

- Expenses not included in the price of the tour, such as airline expenses, extra hotel nights or additional sightseeing activities.
- Lost, damaged or stolen luggage.
- Medical costs, including all activities associated with medical evacuation.
- Pre-existing conditions. Pre-existing conditions include but are not limited to any injury occurring prior to and including the date of purchase of Trip Cancellation Insurance and any illness occurring during the 120 days prior to and including the date of purchase of this protection for which treatment by a licensed physician has been sought or advised or for which symptoms exist which would cause a prudent person to seek diagnosis, care or treatment.
- Any situation not specifically included above.
  If the cancellation occurs prior to the start of the tour, the entire cost paid will be refunded.
  If the cancellation occurs during the trip, a pro-rated refund will be made for the unused days of the trip.
- In the case of a flight cancellation or an accident which makes it impossible for the customer to arrive at the starting location of the tour, the customer will have the option of to receive a refund of the tour payment or join the tour in progress. Clutch Moto Tours reserves the right to determine whether joining the tour is feasible. Clutch Moto Tours will advise the customer as to whether it is feasible to do so. All additional costs to join the tour in progress will be the responsibility of the customer and no pro-rated credit

- will be granted for any days of the tour that the customer did not participate in.
